

At Arttd'inox, we believe that art has the power to evoke emotions and craft powerful thoughts. We also believe that art is not just a creative expression, but rather a holistic timeless interpretation of ageold Indian crafts and traditional elegance, entwined with modern whimsy and global trends.

With every piece, we make sure to give the true "karigar" his due diligence, leaving no stone unturned to revive, uplift, elevate and promote our artisans and their "karigari".
